'58 Seniors Present

"I'LL LEAVE IT TO YOU"

SITTING: Evangeline, Sharon Stahlecker; Mrs. Dermott, Judy Jury; Daniel Davis, Willis Nill; Sylvia, Donna Caldwell; Joyce, Verella Biederstedt; Mrs. Crombie, Janice Pahl; Faith, Luella Heinrich. STANDING: Oliver, Loren Crabtree; Griggs, Dennis Olson; Bobbie, Merle Higgs.

"I'LL LEAVE IT TOO YOU" by Noel Coward was presented by the Senior Class in the spring of '58. Daniel Davis, (Willis Nill), Mrs. Dermott's brother, returned from South America to visit his sister and her family. He wanted to give his money away to the person in the family that deserved it the most. His requirement to receive the money was that the person that was to receive the money was to make good in the world. After the family had heard this they soon began to try and make good, so as to receive all of the money that their dear Uncle Daniel had made in South America. But they soon find out that their uncle does not have any money. They then dislike him because he can not fulfill the promises that he made. But later they see that they are wrong as a result of a telegram that arrives and says that he has come into a lot of money.

WE, THE MICROPHONE STAFF AND SENIOR CLASS

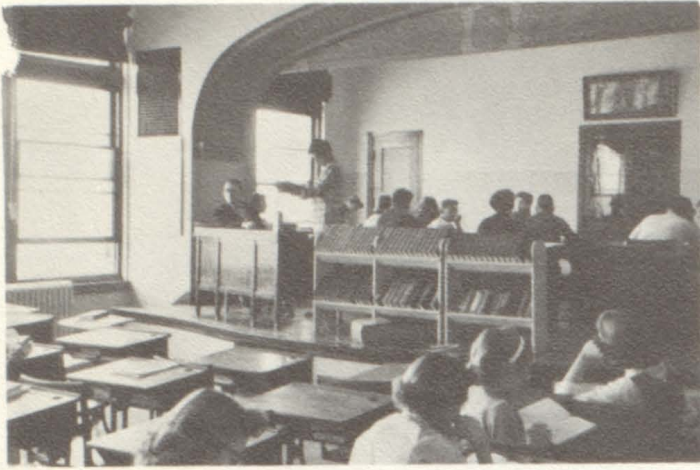

WISH TO THANK

SLICK AND ALICE VAN DYKE
OF
VAN DYKE STUDIO OF
ELLENDALE, NORTH DAKOTA

FOR THEIR ASSISTANCE, HARDWORK, AND PATIENCE.

IN THE COMPOSITION OF THE '59 MICROPHONE.

ABOVE: Mr. Bobzein is sitting on the stage of the senior assembly. This is the fourth period of the afternoon. He is the assembly teacher.

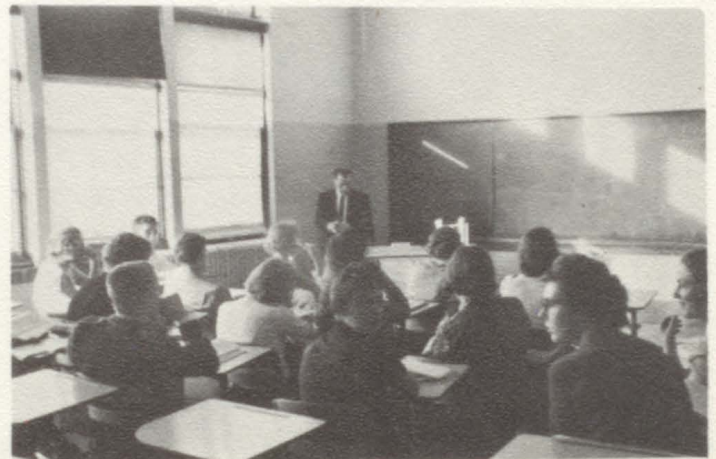

ABOVE: This is a view of the library. It illustrates the students of EHS using the capacity of a library to gain knowledge through the use of all types of literature.

AT LEFT: Ed Sand is using the catalog that was just added to the library this year. It is a catalog which lists vocations and avocations and a number of other things.

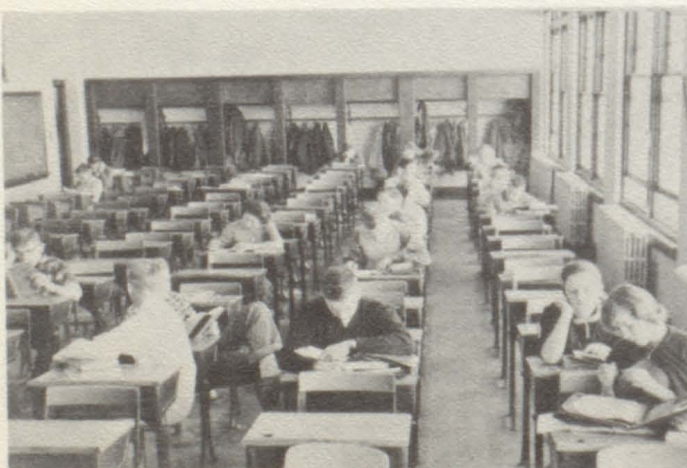

BELOW: Mr. H. M. Carson is conducting a class in physiology. A class which was just added this year for one semester. The second semester is psychology.

ELLENDALE GRAIN and SEED

BELOW: This is a typical picture of an afternoon assembly. It appears that most of the students are doing homework for the next day. Of course if all of the homework is done other activities take place in the assembly. This is the last assembly in the afternoon.

BELOW: This is the home economics classroom in the gymnasium. Shown working on projects are the seventh grade girls. Mrs. V. Eberhardt is the instructor.

BROWN'S MEAT MARKET

Miss Onsrud conducting a Junior English Class. They all look hard at work.

J. Titus giving a speech in Junior Class History.

The Juniors presented their fall play to a very large crowd. Their play was about a starstruck girl, Penny, who wants to play the leading role in a movie version of a novel. The author was to come to town to pick his leading lady. Penny knew that she was bound to be picked for the role, but she didn't know that their maid was planted in town to be discovered. Penny was given advice by her sister, who had played small "bit" parts on radio. But Penny and her girlfriend were outwitted by their boyfriends. Later Penny's father came home with the real author and her boyfriend was exposed. The maid did not get the movie role because she fell in love with Mark. Penny did not get the role either because the author chose her sister, Mavis, instead. Penny and Joanna paired up with their boyfriends and got ready for a tennis tournament.

ABOVE: Ben Crabtree, in sort of a small hassle with his girlfriend, Shirley Olson, doing some fancy manuvering will still get hit with the book.

School In Top 10 percent In State

In 1959 Ellendale High School was rated among the top 10% of schools in the state. This is a rating of all of the classes together. Ellendale High raised its rating by attempting to change its system. The system has added many new subjects thus widening its fields; among these are: shorthand, psychology, and physiology. It has many outstanding extra-curricular activities. Some special events that took place during the year were the fourth annual Cardinal Day; Halloween party; all-school Christmas choral concert; the KELOE band, play, choral, and speech activities; a musical; spring concerts and all of the sports activities, also the annual N-I Music Contest, which takes place in the spring.

pleased with the success he is having with his hula-hoop. At left.

Ray Kaiser seems to be displaying his singing abilities. He is singing a song to Judy Nicholson.

Dick Jury and Joel Traphagen are doing their practice work on the newly added IBM electric typewriters. Darrell Filbert is doing his work on the conventional typewriters.

REIGNING QUEEN OF CARDINAL DAY

Sandra Weispfenning was chosen by the student body from a field of six nominees to reign over the Cardinal Day activities on September 26. The homecoming game was held in the afternoon. Despite prevailing winds the Cards upset the Enderlin Eagles after they had scored the first touchdown and went on to win the game 13-6. This was the fourth consecutive homecoming victory. The traditional initiation held in the morning and the evening party held in the multi-purpose room of the new building were other hi-lites of the day.

The Keystone Honor award is the highest award that can be bestowed upon a high school student. The award is based upon the scholastic, character, service, and leadership achievements of the student during his high school career. The student must also rank in the upper one-third of the class in order to qualify. The members are elected by the complete high school faculty.

They have trodden up these steps for 12 years to participate in school events for the express purpose of self and school betterment. They have served the school and community willingly and happily. They have also lead the student body in daily living. Courteousness and cooperativeness to teachers and classmates must also be added to their list.

This year the Cards displayed their shooting ability, team work, and strength very well as they defeated some of the best teams in the area. They compiled the best record they have ever had. They finished the regular season with 18 wins and 2 losses. They finished the entire season including tournament play with 27 wins and 4 losses.

They succeeded in winning the Kulm Christmas tournament for the second straight year. They succeeded in winning the conference championship for the second year after they had tied with Kulm for it last year. But at the close of the year at the District tournament they failed to show their true strength by being defeated by Enderlin in the championship game. They entered the Regional tournament at Fargo and took the championship after beating Enderlin 62 to 37. They went on to the State tournament at Minot and met bad luck as they failed to beat Carrington after being defeated by them during regular season play. The fire and spirit was not dead by any means as they came back to fight and emerge as the Consolation champions.
